

PUBLICATION ETHICS & MALPRACTICE STATEMENT

■ Publication Ethics

The South Anatolia Economics Journal (SAEJ) is committed to upholding the highest standards of publication ethics and academic integrity. The journal follows internationally recognized ethical guidelines to ensure the credibility, transparency, and reliability of the scholarly record.

All parties involved in the publication process — including authors, reviewers, editors, and the publisher — are expected to adhere to ethical principles consistent with the ■ Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) guidelines.

■ Authors' Responsibilities

Authors submitting manuscripts to SAEJ must ensure that:

- Their work is original and has not been published or submitted elsewhere
- All sources are properly cited and acknowledged
- Any potential conflicts of interest are disclosed
- Research findings are presented accurately and without fabrication or falsification
